

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Aquatint In Colors Signed Kisling "nude Seated In Turban" 1952

880 EUR

Signature : Moïse Kisling

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Length : 67 cm

Width : 52 cm

Description

Moïse Kisling (1891-1953)

"Seated nude with blue turban" 1952

Aquatint in colors, the famous known and recognized nude, "Seated nude with blue turban" signed and justified in pencil by the artist Kisling. This work dates from 1952.

Format sheet 52x67

Moïse Kisling studied at the School of Fine Arts in Krakow, his teacher encouraged him to go to Paris. In 1910, he moved to Montmartre then to Montparnasse.

During the First World War, he enlisted in the Foreign Legion where he was seriously injured. After the war he had a house built in Sanary as

Dealer

1930 Sabine Gravures

Engravings, stencils, lithographs, paintings

Mobile : 0609382995

Paris 75011

well as his workshop. A friend of Modigliani, he painted many portraits before his death in 1921.

A Jew fleeing anti-Semitic persecution, he took refuge in Lisbon and then in New York.

His female nudes and portraits earned him great fame.