Description

Medallion door with oval-shaped glazing, surrounded by a molding carved with water leaves. Beautiful decoration of foliage, scrolls, foliage and friezes. The angles are flanked by columns with a base in the form of a sculpted baluster and whose top is topped with a capital and extended above the cornice by a bobèche in the shape of a spinning top. The pediment is curved like a policeman's hat in the center of which is carved a female face to which foliage scrolls are attached, a motif that is found with another dimension in the corners of the doors. The projecting parts are carved with wavy moldings. The base of the showcase incorporates a lockable drawer. Mahogany - Period XIX th . The interior has 4 adjustable shelves on cleats and wooden rack. Furniture of character, original and
