Description

Oil painting on marine canvas from the early 20th century representing two Provençal boats by Louis Bonamici 1878 1966. Very interesting painting with its typical knife palette from the 30s and 40s by this excellent Provençal painter who participated in many official fairs and galleries in Marseille Paris and New York. Official painter of the navy from 1921 Louis Bonamici was an artist of light and southern nature as shown in a masterful way by this work signed lower left with its original frame that has never been changed. Dim 47 by 57 cm at the frame. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
