Description

Beautiful important antique oval dining room table, 1840 in solid walnut wood. This table is perfect for a dining room, it extends into the center becoming a large table that can accommodate many people. The large central leg is finely turned and carved with decorations in solid walnut. When the table is open, two small turned legs on each side descend and allow the stability of the table. The two central extensions that are used to lengthen it have been left in raw wood and it is possible at the request of the customer who buys to color them. The length of the table is completely elongated cm 226 inch 88,97. If you have few guests it is also possible to extend it with a single extension. Table in perfect conditions, restored you can immediately insert it in your beautiful home.
