Heavy and dense Agra, circa 1970, fine hand-knotted wool, India.

Thick and very comfortable, this very beautiful carpet, resistant, of a high quality wool presents a type of floral decoration which one often finds on the Agra. Shades are soft, almond green, soft apricot, blue, ivory. Agra are of high quality, like most Indian or Indo-Persian rugs.

Agra is located in northern India, on the banks of the Yamuna River.

This city is rightly considered one of the most beautiful and greenest in the country.

It is here that the Taj Mahal is located, the architectural pearl of India, dazzling, recognized as the seventh wonder of the world.

There is also a superb fort, from where there is a superb view of the Taj Mahal from the Musammam Burj tower.

Agra has no beaches and no ocean shores.

But there are many extraordinary architectural monuments and majestic palaces built during the reign of the Great Mughals.

This rug has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
