Description

This elegant portrait of a young woman presents a fascinating and enigmatic, mysterious and seductive smile. It is difficult to interpret precisely because it may seem to change depending on the viewing angle or the brightness of the room. One might think she is smiling slightly, while others see a more pronounced smile. Was the young woman in a meditative or contemplative state of mind? Or was it just a seductive smile meant to charm the viewer? In any case, it is a painting that invites us to dream. This painting was certainly made on wood at the end of the 18th century, beginning of the 19th century and brings a delicate and subtle touch to any classic interior. the painting alone measures 24x32 cm and 42x48 cm with the frame
