Description

Lovely and extremely rare Louis XV period holy water font in sterling silver. It bears the date letter 57 for 1757, the hallmark of the city of Mechelen, former capital of the southern Netherlands in the Duchy of Brabant, and the hallmark of a master goldsmith marking with a poppy capsule. It is entirely covered with period elegant Regency style engraving. It is in perfect condition and still has its detachable interior. It weighs 160 grams.z
