Pair Of Large Venetian Ornaments Early Eighteenth

2 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

Description: Golden wood.
These ornaments dressed pilasters of woodwork on either side of a mirror, a door. Their simple shape will allow them to be easily reused.
The upper part is clad in broken pediments recalling the architectural use of these facings.
The symbolic plant motifs and volutes tighten and descend in foliage and end with a flower ribbon in folds.
The patterns like the conch at the top are different, confronted but in the same rhythm to respect the balance. Condition: Excellent condition, beautiful original gilding, minor wear refreshed with gold leaf. A base was made for them to present them in sculpture.
The base is organized for electrification, you just have to insert the wire and fix an electric
