Description

Beautiful bookcase in ebony veneer and inlays of precious wood, olive, holly, boxwood and sycamore. The woods are finely engraved, burnt and tinted. The facade opens with two glass doors. Very rich floral decoration on the front as well as on the sides. (Abundant flower decoration in the door frames). Fund and soul in softwood and poplar. Blown glasses. Beautiful state of conservation, usual restoration and small recovery of the marquetry in our workshop. Paris Louis XIV period around 1700
