Description

19th century Gateleg table in feinted oak. A leg deployment system allows the flaps to open to form a pretty oval table. A very beautiful decoration of sculptures runs around the edge of the tray, giving it a lot of elegance. The design of this table allows it to be used in various ways. This table has perfect stability. The top is in perfect condition and the patina is magnificent. An elegant and original table with a lot of charm that will fit into all types of interiors, even very modern ones.
