Description

"Canvas reproducing the tapestry produced in Aubusson by GREKOFF Elie (1914-1985) entitled "Le Scorpion". Elie Greekoff who joined Fernand Léger's academy very early represents the scorpion in a chaotic way probably inspired by his stay in the French countryside after the Second World War. Elie Grekoff was a French artist of Russian origin, born in Saratov in the province of Don. During the Russian Revolution his family moved to France. Since his childhood Grekoff dreamed of being a painter, he entered the Académie Fernand Léger. Very quickly Léger recognizes his potential. In 1937 Grekoff created his first mural. For the International Exhibition in Paris, he was commissioned to decorate a large roof panel. After the war, Grekoff stood out for his tapestry work: almost all of Grekoff's
