Description

This walnut sideboard opens on the front with four large-framed doors adorned with diamond points, the sides are flat, it is generously molded and has retained its cornice and part of its original locksmithing. This piece of furniture originating from the South West dates from the end of the 17th century or the beginning of the 18th century. It deserves to be restored by a cabinetmaker and to find a beautiful residence to house it. Sold for a small price, it can be picked up from us in Sologne, 20 km south of Orléans. We will eventually arrange to have a transport quote drawn up to the desired destination. Period late 17th or early 18th century. Dimensions, height 227 cm, width 167, depth 59 cm
