Description

From Maison Letang Fils created in 1832 in Paris, famous mold manufacturer, rare ice cream mold in patinated copper and tinned iron with pansy decoration. Very good casting quality. Very decorative. Carrying out its activity in Paris first of all on Rue Quincampoix, the company moved in 1891 to a building which it bought at 108 Rue Vieille du Temple, an address stamped on our mold under the name of the House. In 1900, she participated in her 5th Universal Exhibition in Paris and once again distinguished herself there. It was already "the supplier of the whole world". Numbered 3 and mark stamped in stick letters LETANG FILS 108 rue Vieille du Temple Paris on the border. Ideal for decorating an old kitchen! Nice volume! Dimensions: Length: 18 cm x 16 cm at the widest. Height: 7.5
