Description

Set of Art Deco period seats in solid beech consisting of a pair of bridge armchairs and a large stool. Upholstered in water green fabric, these seats have a wide seat and a comfortable backrest. Combining elegance and style, each armchair is fitted with armrests that flare outwards. The slightly curved feet end finely at the bottom. The stool uses the same movements as the armchairs with flared sides and slender curved legs. Elegant and timeless, these bridge armchairs accompanied by an important stool from the 1940s will easily take their place in the room of your choice.  Period: 1940
Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop. Varnished finish after stripping.
