Description

Beautiful pair of small Italian Majolica vases in the Renaissance style decorated with four different mythological scenes and with side grips in the shape of intertwined snakes starting from a head of Medusa. Nice quality of execution and very beautiful colors. A vase in perfect condition, the second with gaps at the back around the neck in the windings of snakes (see last photo). Italian work from the first half of the 19th century. NB/ Sending possible for France via Colissimo followed: 20 euros.
