PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Oil On Canvas, Family Scene By Emile Hirsch

3 200 EUR

Signature : Emile HIRSCH

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 50.4

Height : 58.2

Description

Emile HIRSCH 1832 -1904

was a painter from Lorraine, a glass artist and student of Delacroix, Flandrin and Ingres.

He came from a Jewish family in Metz and then moved to Paris.
In 1844, he won 3rd prize in the general drawing competition of the city of Paris.

In 1852 he entered the Beaux-Arts school. He began his career as a cartonnier in the world of stained glass. He even opened his own workshop in 1868.

His pupil was Georges Rouault who was very influenced by the revival of the faith.

Dealer

Galerie Saint-Martin
Antics, Furniture, Paintings, Fine art
Tel : 01-42-60-83-65

5 et 11 rue des Saints-Pères
Paris 75006

S his works were regularly exhibited at the Salon between 1852 and 1880.
Emile Hirsch was influenced by the Nazarene movement and the English Pre-Raphaelite movement.

His work for the stained glass and visible in many French churches and his painting in museums