PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Louis XV Style Bureau Plat After A Model By J. Dubois, France, C. 1880

78 000 EUR

Period : 19th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Marquetry
Length : 183
Height : 81
Depth : 96

Description

A rare double-side Louis XV style flat desk, made of kingwood and satinwood veneer ; opening with three drawers decorated with a beautiful flower motif end-cut wood marquetry. With fine chased and gilded bronze enrichments made of rococo motifs. Topped with a tooled red leather writing surface. Raised on four ormolu-mounted cabriole legs.

Related work :
Our desk was made after the famous 18th century model known as the « Choiseul desk » made by Jacques Dubois (1693-1763) around 1750 for the Château du Raincy. Now preserved at the Paris Louvre Museum (OA 6083).
(Reproduced in « Le mobilier Français du XVIIIème siècle », par P. Kjellberg, Ed. de

Dealer

Tobogan Antiques
Furniture and Art objects from the 19th Century
Tel : 0142868999
Mobile : 0609471374

14 avenue Matignon
Paris 75008

l'amateur, 1989, p°269)