Description

Marquetry table from the art deco period. The woods used are: zebrano, rosewood, beech, walnut, mahogany... The top plate is decorated with a view of a village crossed by a bridge all against the bottom of the hills. A stream accompanies the characters on each side, allowing the hot-air balloon to drift away. All this with a tree and a grove. The bottom shelf includes a floral decoration. (12 cm high) The oval bottoms are framed by a rosewood net. All four right molded feet are located at the corners. Nice ratio! Possible delivery not included in the price
