Description

Very nice Louis Philippe period walnut desk. This model, also called "piano desk" is entirely original. The interiors are made of solid oak, a sign of quality. When you close the slider, it locks two of the upper drawers, by a system of zippers. The top is covered with patinated leather. The feet are angled, also called canted. The slide system works perfectly. W 115cm H 109cm D 61cm
