Description

Virgin with Child Jesus.

Gouache on parchment.

17th or 18th century.

The child Jesus is holding the white lilies, symbol of Mary.

The composition has a curtain behind which he glimpses the division into squares, barely visible.

Delicatissimi is a refined drawing of the Madonna's face.

The parchment is placed on a wooden tablet, which gives support and stability to the parchment sheet. On the back of the panel there is an inscription in French: "Ce tableaux apartien a Monsieur... (hardly legible) ou a ses héritiers."

Slight traces of division into squares can be glimpsed on the curtain.
