She exhibited for the first time in 1964 in Switzerland and since then her paintings and engravings have been part of important exhibitions throughout Europe and also in Japan and the United States. Landscapes, interiors and still lifes are at the center of his artistic universe. His engravings with particular precision present everyday objects to us in their less tangible and poetic aspects by revealing to us the beauty of simple things.

Annapia Antonini is represented in numerous galleries in France, Switzerland, England, the United States and Germany.
