

Very Beautiful Small 17th Century Table In Stained Walnut A Drawer Baluster Feet With

A wooden side table with a single drawer and turned legs. The table is made of light-colored wood, possibly pine or oak, and features a single drawer with a round knob. The legs are turned and fluted, and the table is supported by a horizontal stretcher. The table is placed on a light-colored, textured surface, possibly a rug or carpet.

Depth : 38cm

This dark walnut sofa end table with baluster legs, a rectangular front drawer with corbin beak is a great addition for someone looking for this sober and elegant style that Louis XIII can produce, this pretty table is functional with its generous drawer, solid with its balluster-shaped spacer feet with a beautiful patina, it will support a beautiful lamp or other with a pretty tray where you can place the book, anti-parasite treated piece

Marseille 13007