Description

Chirvan Kouba Caucasus carpet made of wool velvet on wool foundations, with maintenance restorations. The carpet is in a good state of conservation and presents a remarkable freshness of the colors. The field is brick red with an original geometric decoration of rows of stylized polychrome combs, framing a succession of multicolored flower bulbs and buds, insects and stylized tarantulas, representative of the ground. The borders are four in number, with a main ivory with geometrically polychrome stylized parrots in the form of hooks. Measurements: Length: 205 Width: 125 cm
