Description

G. Danton, G. Baudin, Pierre Joubert: "Scenes from the history of France", 1st series. Editions Rossignol 1966 printed in Montmorillon Spiral cardboard binding 66 X 60 cm. Corners a little chewed, some stains and bites. Pierre Joubert (1910-2002), immense illustrator with a characteristic trait, whether in the humorous vein like here or the more realistic one he used for the illustrations of "Signe de Piste" or for the covers of "Bob Morane", was a prolific author whose work is estimated at more than 15,000 drawings! It was the dream of many generations and is still actively sought after. This album comes from an important collection of works on scouting, in particular Alsatia which is for sale in block 500 euros.
