Description

Elegant portico lamp with two lights from the Art Nouveau period at the turn of Art Deco around 1920 - 1925 in hammered wrought iron decorated with Virginia creeper and falling bunches of grapes. Two windings hold two pinched and hot-stretched tulips in marmoreal glass nuanced with pink-raspberry, intense blue, green and yellow. Each tulip is signed "Muller Fres Lunéville". The lamp has been re-electrified with a black passementerie wire and works perfectly. Dimensions: Height: 51 cm x 32 cm wide Very good condition. Completely cleaned and re-electrified, it is ready to be installed. Many other objects to discover in my stand at the antique fairs in which I participate.
