Description

This is a Small Marine Oil Painting, which represents a Marina with Coast and Fisherman. The work represents a glimpse of a rocky coastline with two small boats and a fisherman.

It is an oil painting on wood from the early 1800s.

The painting and the frame are restored.

This oil painting on wood has an original golden frame realised in the XIX century.

The 19th century painting is not signed, but it is by a French painter active in the 19th century.
