Description

Rare Italian of the period Louis Philippe antique single bed, 1845. This type of bed is called "a boat" due to its particular shape. The bed was born to be placed against the wall, only the front side is finished and polished. To be more precise, the headboard and a long side of the bed were created to be positioned against the wall, because they are rough and unpolished, see photo. Perfect condition ready to be used in your beautiful home. Internal dimensions inch W 31,49 D 79,52 cm W 80, D 202. Attention this bed will be shipped disassembled, assembly is not included in the delivery. Please check the internal and external measurements correctly before placing an order. The bed is sold without bed slats and mattress, we recommend buying them when the bed arrives to you to get the precise
