Description
-------------

Elegant suite of four armchairs in solid mahogany and mahogany veneer, from the Restoration period. The base is made up of two front "frog's thigh" legs and two saber legs at the back. The armrests are finished with windings and rest on console supports also decorated with windings. The backrest is slightly curved outwards, the top is nicely curved and scalloped. The upholstery of these armchairs, as well as the covering fabric, have been completely redone recently, so the seat is firm and very comfortable. The covering fabric is an old gold-coloured corduroy with a studded finish, all in very good condition. These armchairs can be sold in pairs at a price of 1390 euros.
