Description

EMPEROR JOSEPHINE AND PRINCESS PAULINE BONAPARTE EMPIRE PERIOD PARIS PORCELAIN VASES. The portrait of Joséphine is painted after the painting by Pierre-Paul Prud'hon appearing in the Louvre and that of Princess Pauline Bonaparte, is made after a painting of which I do not know the author. The two scenes of these vases are signed Guy Carel. Elegant bouquets of flowers appear on the reverse of the vases. Condition: old restoration with a handle in the shape of a swan's neck on the vase with Pauline Bonaparte. A plugged chip at the top of the foot of the vase and a chip at the base on the other vase. The vases have been pierced to be mounted as a lamp. Possibility of hand delivery in Paris. Shipping costs: 20 euros by colissimo for France
