Description

Charming lacquered chairs embellished with gilded motifs, resting on reversed legs at the back and tapered legs with fluting stopped at the front. The belt supporting the seat is recessed and decorated with painted decorations representing arabesques and stylized flowers. An elegantly sculpted open back has fluted uprights and interlocking wood cutouts. The whole is painted with golden arabesques and topped with a sculpted Louis XVI knot. The seat of these chairs is in very good firm condition and covered with an upholstery fabric, with plant motifs, studded on the belt, which can be replaced according to your tastes. Graceful and refined, these unique chairs will delight lovers of finesse and lightness.
