Description

Charming little piece of furniture composed of two moving drawers on the front, in butterfly wing veneer in the center, surrounded by stained wood fillets and framed by a mahogany rim with concave angles. Each drawer has a brass ring for opening. The sides and back are rounded and have a four-leaf veneer, surrounded by a stained wood fillet accompanied by a mahogany surround with concave angles. The interior and the bottom are in solid oak. This piece of furniture rests on four slightly curved legs, with humps, in solid mahogany. These feature 6 facets, with a cross-veneered front in rosewood. In the lower part, we observe delicately chiseled bronze falls. This table is crowned with a pretty Brocatelle marble from the Jura, set on the top. This small, refined lady's table has benefited from a
