Description

This desk has a concave flap, in rosewood veneer, lined with a composition of flowers, in light wood, surrounded by a net of boxwood. It is equipped with a functional original lock with brass entry and rear key. The writing part is dark with current cocoa leather with a central motif and golden vignette. This flap, mounted on dovetail knobs, is slightly raised. The interior offers three identical drawers in rosewood and boxwood nets as well as a reserve accessible by a sliding plate with brass miter. The upper part of the cabinet offers two drawers, surmounted by shelves with perforated bronze galleries, and separated by a niche flanked by a beveled mirror. Two stilts, in turned brass, support a terrace with a bronze gallery. The sides and the belt are in motion. The set rests on four arched legs, dressed
