Description

superb 19th century extending table in oak from France

Very elegant extending table with straight legs which has beautiful proportions with a width of 86cm.
It is rare to find extension tables in oak.

The table has two extensions of 63cm . The extensions are also in oak and have a very beautiful patina. It is then possible to leave it open without a table cloth

It is possible to open 1 extension and have a length of 2m62 or both extensions and have a length of 3m25
