Description

French Art Deco center table in forged iron with mustard colored marble top. This exceptional table by Malatre et Tonnelier is a handcrafted work of art and an absolute eye-catcher. The table is octagonal and the 4 curved legs end in a volute at the bottom of the base. A net-like structure of stylized Art Deco flowers and vines form the table frame and the 4 table legs. This art work is bordered with a smooth 1.5-2.2cm wide iron band. The top edge of the table frame is fluted and blends stylistically with the fluted florals and bands in the frame and legs. The heavy mustard yellow marble top has a light grain with black, gray and beige veins - the edge is rounded. Documentation: Le fer Forgé (Wrought Iron) by Henri Clouzet, France, Albert Morancé, Paris.
