Description

Jacob Ferdinand Saeys Flemish painter Antwerp 1658 - after 1726 Vienna Exotic Turkish figures going for a stroll through the arcades Oil on canvas : 66,7 X 81,6 cm Unsigned Frame : 83,7 X 98,5 cm

Saeys was a Flemish perspective painter who specialised in these architectural palace fantasies. From 1694 until 1725 he is documented in Vienna, capital of the Holy Roman Empire.

The Turkish figures in our painting testify of Western fascination for the exotic Ottoman culture.
