Description

Superb living room set consisting of 2 armchairs and 2 chairs from the Louis XVI period. They rest on a tapered base, fluted decorated with asparagus tips, the belt is decorated on its periphery with nets and the dice with daisy assemblies and the front of the chairs and armchairs is in reed, a sign of quality. The armrests are baluster and fluted, decorated with asparagus tips and foliage. The policeman's hat file is adorned with a molding around its edge and the same pattern as the crosspieces. The whole is rechampi of a gray white with recovery and covered with a recently redone fabric. Quality work in excellent condition, solid and with a very fine sculpture.
