Description

Antique Louis Philippe Neapolitan console in precious exotic wood with gray bardiglio marble top.

The top is supported by a mixtilinear band under the top with a large cymatium in the centre.

Four large feet with a cabriolet shape characterize the front elevation and are finely carved with leaf motif elements.

The base is of a mixtilinear type and follows the same trend as the upper band, always with a cymatium in the centre.

Four beautiful cushion feet have the dual function of supporting and throwing the console upwards.
