Description

Covered bowl in lacquered wood covered with black lacquer (roiro) decorated with stylized flowers and fans in gold powder. The artist used several shades of gold to give relief to his creation. On the fans are carefully drawn tiny patterns, waves, plants and turtles (minogame) surrounding a moon (or a sun). The interiors are lacquered in red. The elegant decor, the perfect lacquering technique and the excellent condition make this pretty bowl a precious rare collector's item. Japan 19th century. Edo or Meiji period.
