

A Louis XVI Period (1774 - 1793) Tric - Trac Table.

12 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 120

Height : 70

Depth : 50

Description

A rare Louis XVI period mahogany, ebony and ivory tric - trac table, on four tapered fluted legs terminated by feet. The table opens with for drawers and has three removable game plates decorated with the games such as "jeu de l'oie, Nain Jaune, le jeu de cavagnole, jeu de l'Hymen" on both sides. Its double face plate is furnished by chess, checkers and roulette game on one side and with felt on the second one.

The table has a full set of chess game, checkers game and 30 tric - trac chips, two leather cups, a set of game of dice, two candle holders.

A similar table was sold the 29th-30th November 1976 lot 249, Palais Galliera (see Denise Ledoux-Lebard, Les ébénistes du XIXe siècle, 1795 - 1889, leurs oeuvres et leurs marques, les éditions de l'amateur 1984, p. 87 ill. p. 85 and the

Dealer

Antiquités Arnaud Catel

Antiquités et objets d'art

Mobile : +33 (0)6 74 29 84 33

Marché Biron Galerie 58 - Allée 1, 85 rue des rosiers
Saint-Ouen 93400

cover page).

France.

18th century.