Description

17th century

Pair of spool-shaped chairs

Walnut, alt. cm 115 x larg. cm 51 x prof. cm 43

Elegant pair of spool chairs in XVII century walnut. The furnishings are adorned with a front crossbar that joins the front supports, made through the juxtaposition of different forms, straight and sinuous, with references to the structures of the stringers themselves. A spool are also the connections between the front and rear supports, as well as the partition that joins the side ones.
