Description

Perfume

bottle in azure blue opaline glass and gilt-bronze mount, the body opaque and piriform, the neck encircled by a leafy collar at the base of the stopper, the stopper adorned with a gilt-bronze mount set with a white opaline glass. Paris, Palais-Royal.

Napoleon III period.H_10 cmGood overall condition, slight wear to the gilding.The Napoleon III period (1852-1870) is characterized by a pronounced taste for eclecticism and luxury. Opaline, particularly prized under the Second Empire, is presented here in a striking azure blue that contrasts elegantly with the gilt bronze.This
