

Small Vintage Sideboard

630 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Teak

Length : 120

Height : 79

Depth : 45

Description

Discover the Scandinavian vintage charm with our small teak sideboard, unearthed directly in the town of Horsens, in Denmark. This jewel from the 70s is characterized by its 2 sliding doors revealing 2 removable shelves, a nod to the practical and refined aesthetics of this period. It rests on tapered legs, accentuating its graceful allure. We have taken particular care in restoring the top, delicately sanded and varnished to bring out the natural beauty of teak. Dating from the 70s, this sideboard, original from Horsens in Denmark, is a perfect blend of vintage and contemporary. Its discreet patina and teak wood give it an undeniable charm, echoing Scandinavian design trends. Rehabilitated with delicacy, the row retains its authentic character while blending easily with a modern decor. The 2

Dealer

Les Belles Vies

Specialist in vintage furniture

Mobile : 0627734888

35 rue Pierre Carlier

Montigny-Les-Cormeilles 95370

sliding doors and removable shelves offer optimal use of space, whether placed in a cozy living room or in an office for a note of serenity. Its tapered legs, an iconic feature of Scandinavian style, give it a slender, lightweight silhouette. This teak piece of furniture, more than a simple utilitarian object, is a real decorative element that brings a warm touch to your interior, blending harmoniously with all color palettes. Its compact size (H79 cm x W120 cm x D45 cm) allows it to fit perfectly into any room. Succumb to its timeless appeal and invite a piece of Danish history into your home. Period: 1970s Origin: Denmark - Horsens Materials: Teak Color: Wood Style: Vintage, Scandinavian Operation: 2 sliding doors which open onto 2 removable shelves. Leg type: Tapered legs Restoration: Sanded and varnished top Particular detail to note: Slight scratches visible in the photo Dimensions: H79 cm x W120 cm x D45 cm