PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

The Immortal Triumph, Pegasus And A Victorious Athlete, Large Bronze Signed From The End Of Th

4 800 EUR

Signature : Scotte et L.Moreau
Period : 19th century
Condition : Très bon état
Material : Bronze
Length : 23 cm au socle
Width : 21 cm au socle
Height : 71 cm

Description

Very large bronze titled the immortal triumph or pegasus accompanying a victorious athlete.
dating from the end of the 19th century, it rests on a beautiful base in original sea green marble.
a cartouche on the terrace indicates the name of this bronze and its authors: L.Moreau and Scotte.
it is also signed on the sphere.
it is a very slender and elaborate large-scale bronze with a beautiful movement.
Pegasus the winged horse is rearing up on its front legs resting on the sphere representing the world and on which flies a bird of prey.
near Pegasus a handsome athlete holds his reins, stretching out his arm at the end of which he holds two laurel wreaths as a sign of victory.
this bronze is magnificent and the details are superb: look at the look of Pegasus, the feathers

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste
Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

of his wings, the body of the young man.
the carving details are very well executed and of great finesse and the medal-coloured patina is magnificent and highlights all the details of this high-quality bronze.
a very beautiful large size mythological and allegorical bronze.

size:
71 cm high and 23 cm long at the base by 21 cm deep at the base.

we deliver and ship anywhere in the world, please contact us for a precise quote.