Description

Tulip-shaped vase, 1930 period cut, art deco by the Schneider house. Charles Schneider was a great creator of glass paste objects in the very distinctive Art Deco style who produced high quality pieces in shimmering colours. We are in the presence of a work very balanced by its elegant shape, tulip cone with foot and decorated with more than a magnificent palette of orange and blue colors. Note the excellent original condition of this rare object in this size and this color composition. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
