Description

Discover our magnificent vintage extendable teak table, dating from the 60s Henning Kjaernulf and produced by Vejle møbelfabrik. Originally from Denmark, it was found in Aalborg, thus adding a touch of authenticity to your interior. Thanks to its clever extensions, this table offers three different positions, allowing you to adapt it according to your needs. Its vintage and Scandinavian style will bring a retro and warm touch to your decoration. Made of high quality teak, this table combines solidity and aesthetics. Its natural wood color gives it a timeless elegance. The spindle legs add a note of lightness and sophistication to the whole. Please note that this table has marks on the top and on the sides of the legs, a testament to its history and vintage charm. Also, there is a size difference between
