Description

I present here a beautiful buffet of reasonable size in cherry (wild cherry) oak uprights and walnut top in corbin's beak, it has a remarkable patina, which unifies the whole thing with a pretty brown-red color, it is a regional piece of furniture (central France Roannais) in good condition and always maintained, the moldings of the doors and drawer offer a beautiful facade with two diamond scrapers on each side, Louis XV style eventful for the doors and the facade of the drawer, the robust sides with double panels, like the uprights and molded gronds, lock and handle in patinated iron, A very useful decorative piece and a pretty elegant rustic, free of parasites
