Description

Hexagonal processional lantern in gray and gilt lacquered iron in neo-Gothic style.
Six pointed openings, sides decorated with 12 motifs, quadrilobed for the first half and trilobed for the second half. Thus, in the simplicity of this object, hides as often, powerful symbols. From the 12 tribes of Israel to the apostles, it is all the weight and wisdom of Biblical History that are discreetly summoned during these processions. After all, these little boxes do nothing less than welcome... the Light!
Without glass. It has its turned wooden shaft.
Lantern height: 61 cm. With shaft: 150 cm.
Wear and small losses.
