Description

Beautiful gouache representing the apse of the Saint Pierre de Caen church and the Odon river, we can see the Saint Pierre bridge in the background. Very fresh in color, it shows us a scene of daily life in Caen with this group of washerwomen. Signed Armand Petit and dated 1836. Pretty old frame in pitch pine mounted with key and its old glass, modern cardboard We can note an old small tear restored on the right side but which does not alter the reading of the work. Norman School of the 19th century. Frame: 45.5 cm x 37.5 cm Gouache: 23.5 cm x 16.5 cm
