Description

Very early he showed an attraction for the arts and painting, after secondary school in Evreux, he worked for the Transatlantic Company for 8 years as a navigator and discovered America in particular. He took classes at the School of Fine Arts in Rouen and met the nephew of the famous Pierre BONNARD, the 2 men became friends. BONNARD allows him to progress quickly, he then works with Lucien FONTANAROSA and Fernand ELIE. From then on the exhibitions follow one another, his work becomes international and is always better welcomed by critics and art lovers. Painter acclaimed by the Galerie TUFFIER, a reference in the field of contemporary art for two generations
