Description

This adorable little miniature is painted in oil on cardboard. The young woman represented is delicately painted, her head is elegant and, her neck and shoulders emerge from a vaporous background, the artist has given her a serene and pensive expression borrowed from softness, her opulent hair raised on the top of the head is held by a large blue knot. This small portrait is preserved in a silver frame which opens on the reverse, it is surmounted by a knot and bordered on the circumference of Rhine stones, it is provided on the back of the knot with a ring and it must have originally had a small foot which allowed it to be posed. A diamond-shaped maker's mark appears on the back but we could not decipher it. Missing a small stone at the top. Late 19th century. Dimensions: height 7.2 cm,
